Section 9.3: Why Do People Explore Extreme Environments?

Key Question: Why do people explore extreme environments?

BEFORE YOU READ

Talk to a partner. Pretend that you are both explorers of an extreme environment. Which extreme environment would you want to explore? What would you hope to find? What would you want to learn?

WHILE YOU READ

Create a web or list that shows why people explore extreme environments.

AFTER YOU READ

Think back to all the reasons why people explore extreme environments. How could these explorations make your life better?
